Hello to all of my friends from school!

What have you all been doing? I have been busy painting my NHS rainbow, making yum-yum cakes, making dinosaur moulds, doing some homework, helping mummy do the hoovering and we have also been to feed the ducks on our walks. I had a visit from the tooth fairy last week after I lost my first baby tooth! I also have a new baby sister at home! I love helping mummy bath her! I love her lots!

I hope you are all ok and it's not too long before we can play together again! I miss you all!

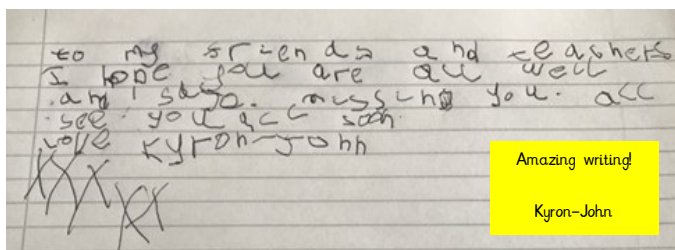

Lots of love
