

Geography

Geography - Why does it matter where our food comes from?

Geography

Different farms

Arable

Pastoral

Mixed

Key vocabulary

Raw material	things found in nature that are used to make products people use
Export	sell items to people in other countries
Import	buy items made by people in other countries
Manufacture	make or assemble a product for sale
Refine	remove the impurities from something
Pasture	land used on farms to grow grass for animals such as cows to feed on
Plantation	a large farm which specialises in growing just one crop such as bananas
Nutrition	giving the body the food it needs to grow and be healthy
Tropical	regions of the Earth surrounding the equator
Temperate	regions of the Earth lying between the tropics and polar areas

Big ideas

What is a farm, what happens on a dairy farm and how is milk used as a raw material in dairy products?
 What are the physical and human features of the rural and urban landscapes of Devon in the UK?
 Why does the weather in Devon make it an ideal place for dairy farming?
 What is trade and what do importing and exporting mean?
 What are the most popular fruits consumed in the UK and where in the world they are produced?
 What are the stages of growing bananas and exporting them to the UK?
 Why buy food produced locally and what is 'free range'?

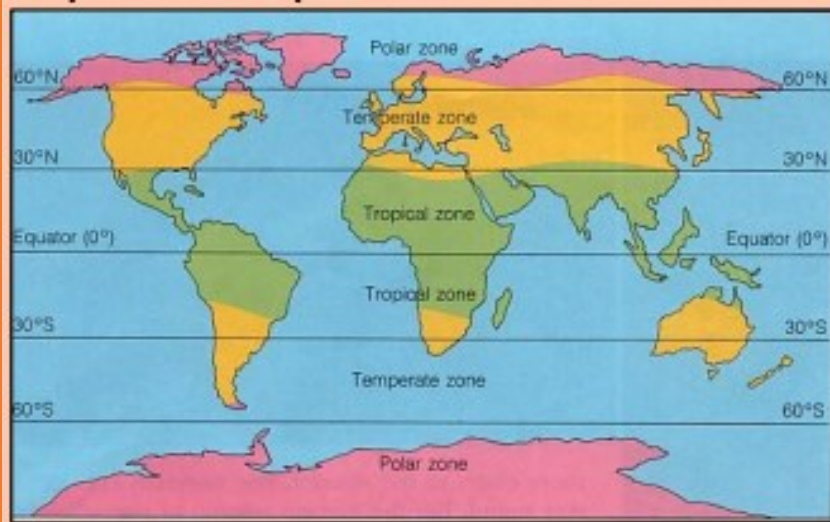

Geography

Geography - Why does it matter where our food comes from?

Geography

Maps

Climate regions of the world

The United Kingdom

Places

Costa Rica

Devon, The United Kingdom

Food products

Sugar beet

Free range chickens

Bananas

Cow's milk